1-51-51	proved For Release 2006/11/21: CALROFS0-00809A0005	00840065-5 209538
OUNTRY .	Polend DATE DISG.	12 Baptember 190;
IBJECT	Coments on the FFS NO. OF PA'.	3
ACE _	25X1 NO. OF EN. L
COSRIUÇ	CISTO etc.
YTE QUIRED	25X1 SUPFLEME.	то
ing the second	- Programment and Address (Marketter of States (Marketter) (Marke	A DE LANGE AND
entery prop	The state of the s
THIS DUCUMENT HATIONAL DEPEN HE AND ON THE FMANDED HE TO TOUTENAS IN AM	CON ACUS (NOTORMATION ASSECTION THE TE E C THE UNITED OTATES WITHIN THE TE FOR OBJECT ACT TO U.S. C St. ARC SZ, AO I NOTE: (SEION OF THE ASSECLATION OF THE	The state of the s
IT PROHIBITED OF IN PA	TO THE TANK THE PROPERTY OF TH	and the state of t
to receive the William	and another the constant and the same and th
	lor sykta Statements
1.	Any unification of the PTR and the PTS must be besed on compute do not effect a compromise, the PPS will gradually become pendent of the PPR.	lse. If re inde-
	Or plan for a united workers front has proved of greater ad
	the PPS than to the PPR because: it showed the PPS to be the	æge to ore Polish an' more national perty of the two, in the eyes of the public the PPS to the workers masses; and it allowed the PFS to unit	it tied and to el minato the differences existing between it and WFN.
3.	While leaders are ready for compromise, for co-operationfor wo wors front. They have infiltrated the WRN spirit into the	nited orkers masses, and assumed a minor political leadership. We can no change this process.	op or
4.	We know that the ranks of the PPS do not approve their leade.
1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1		policy.
	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be ovated, wit	policy. She ranks
	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be ovated, wit of the PPS then forwing a united front with the PSL against	the ranks
	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be ovated, with of the PPS then forwing a united front with the PSL against. These who understand the popular viewpoint realize that the unification of the working classes and of the PPS. Believing	the ranks PPR Ole want Lity esser-
	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be overed, with of the PPS then forwing a united front with the PPS against. These who understand the popular viewpoint realize that the property of the prope	the ranks FPR Ole want
	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be ovated, with of the PPS then forwing a united front with the PSL against. These who understand the popular viewpoint realize that the unification of the working classes and of the PPS. Believing that to their interests, the workers would endorse a PPS uniformax and enlist under the PPS flag. The conviction that our ranks are standing firmly behind our	the ranks FPR. ole want lity easen- lition
5.	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be ovated, wit of the PPS then forwing a united front with the PSL against. These who understand the popular viewpoint realize that the unification of the working classes and of the PPS. Believing that to their interests, the workers would endorse a PPS uniform and enlist under the PPS flag.	the ranks FPR. ole want lity easen- rtion
5.	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be ovated, with of the PPS then forwing a united front with the PSL against. These who understand the popular viewpoint realize that the unification of the working classes and of the PPS. Believing that to their interests, the workers would endorse a PPS uniformax and enlist under the PPS flag. The conviction that our ranks are standing firmly behind our is more wishful thicking on the part of a small group of civ	the ranks FPR. ole want lity easen- lition
5.	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be ovated, with of the PPS then forwing a united front with the PSL against. These who understand the popular viewpoint realize that the unification of the working classes and of the PPS. Believing that to their interests, the workers would endorse a PPS uniformax and enlist under the PPS flag. The conviction that our ranks are standing firmly behind our is more wishful thicking on the part of a small group of civ	the ranks FPR. ole want lity easen- lition
5.	Under "changed conditions" these leaders might be ovated, with of the PPS then forwing a united front with the PSL against. These who understand the popular viewpoint realize that the unification of the working classes and of the PPS. Believing that to their interests, the workers would endorse a PPS uniformax and enlist under the PPS flag. The conviction that our ranks are standing firmly behind our is more wishful thicking on the part of a small group of civ	the ranks FPR. ole want lity easen- lition

25X1

25X1

Approved For Release 2003/11/21 CIA-ROPSQ-009A

25X1

25X1

Approved For Release 2005/10717: CIA-RDP80-00809A000500840065-5

109536

SECKET

- 2 -

25X1

Albrecht's Statements

The second

- 7. PPS leadership is weak and does not know how to defend itself the any force. We can count on PPS acceptance of all our proposals. The depending upon us, PPS leaders have lost the confidence of the masses.
- 3. Internal dissention in the PPS is a great handlesp to the PPS, the PPR, and the whole democratic came. This internal conflict is certainly not the result of "camouflaged action" by the "RN—it is too weak. Unrest in PPS ranks is a result of our own ever increasing pressure on them.

-end-

SECRET

